ESTO – European Specialist in Traditional Orchards	esto european specialist in traditional orchards
CARE & MANAGEMENT	Unit 4
Propagating fruit trees for traditional orchards	L 4

KNOWLEDGE

He/she is able to

- understand and provide the definition and methods of propagation
- 2. explain techniques of propagation from:
  - seeds (sexual reproduction, origin of the seeds, seed dormancy, seeding technology)
  - b) grafts (copulation, budding, rootstock, grafting scion)
  - c) cuttings
  - d) wildlings / root suckers
- 3. describe features of plant material
- 4. analyse the tools for propagation
- 5. explain the care for young trees in nurseries
- 6. explain the documentation and labelling
- analyse the costs of staff, material, machines and external services

SKILLS

He/she is able to

- choose and use appropriate methods to ensure successful propagation
- choose and to use appropriate tools and materials to ensure successful propagation
- 3. take care for young trees in nurseries
- do documentation and labelling according to legal requirements
- do calculation of costs

COMPETENCES

- 1. He/she propagates fruit trees according to traditional methods on his/her own.
- 2. He/she calculates and documents propagation of traditional fruit trees on his/her own.